The fund's assets may be invested in transferable securities, money market instruments, derivative instruments, mutual fund units and in accounts with credit institutions.

RISK/RETURN PROFILE

The risk/return indicator shows the relationship between risk and possible return on an investment in the fund. The indicator is based on how the fund's value has changed over the past five years. Since the fund has been in existence for less than five years, the indicator is based on historic market data, supplemented by the history of the relevant comparison object.

This fund belongs to category 3, which means the risk of both ups and downs in the unit value. Category 1 does not mean that the fund is risk-free. Over time, the Fund can move both to the right and left of the scale. This is because the indicator is based on historical data that is not a guarantee of future risk/return.

The fact that the fund belongs to category 3 is due to the fact that the forecast standard deviation (volatility) is expected to be 2-5 %.

The fund can both increase and decrease in value with no guarantee that you will get back the full amount invested.

The indicator reflects the risk-taking of the main risks in the fund. It does not show the risk of, among other things:

Liquidity risk: low liquidity can make it difficult or impossible to buy or sell a security in a reasonable time, and the price may be lower or higher than expected.

Credit risk: The fund invests in fixed income instruments, such as bonds. If a publisher of such an instrument is unable to pay interest and nominal amount, the investment may lose a large part or all of its value.

Currency risk: When the fund invests globally, the respective share class value development is also affected by changes in value between currencies.
