

VINGA
CORPORATE BOND

MONTHLY REPORT
APRIL 2024

Continued Uptrend!

Vinga CB continued its upward trend in April. This is the sixth consecutive month of positive development, and the fund ranks top three on Morningstar for 2024. Our strategy focusing on innovative sector leaders serves us well. The fund maintains a large portion of floating rate bonds (short duration), which protects returns as interest rates rise. We have long argued that longer-term rates are likely to rise further and that it is too early to move into fixed-coupon bonds. A rate cut from the Central Bank could give the market a positive boost in May.

/ COMMENTS - APRIL /

During the month, we exercised our right to sell back Biokraft's bond at a price of 101 after a new ownership group led by ST1 acquired the company. We added two new bonds, one from Fertiberia with a yield of 9.1% and one from Home Services Group with the same yield. Fertiberia is a European market leader in sustainable fertilizers and is controlled by the private equity fund Triton. Home Services Group operates within the structurally growing market of RUT services in the Nordic countries. The company, with its e-platform, is a market leader in a fragmented market.
